PUBLIC AUCTION.

To be sold, at public auction, in the Northumberland court house, in the county of Northumberland, and state of Virginia, on TUESDAY, the fifth day of September next, at eleven o'clock, in the forenoon, Five contiguous Plantations,

Amounting together to about 2700 Acres,

SITUATE on the river Potomac, and within about three miles of the courthouse. These estates formerly belonged to Presley Thornton, Esq. and are the same on which he lived. They have never been seen by either of the subscribers; but it is understood, that about 1700 acres of them are as valuable low grounds as any on the river, and a considerable part thereof heavily timbered.
The uplands consist of about 1000 acres, and the whole is well calculated for the production of corn, wheat, tobacco, timothy, and small grain of all kinds, in great abundance. The waters are said to abound with excellent fish, oysters, and wild fowl. The water carriage is easy and convenient to Norfolk, Bat-imore, Alexandria, and the city of Washington; and as these estates possess several good mill seats, with an abundance of water, and a plentiful supply of timber, they must be very valuable.

The premises will be shewn to persons inclining to purchase, by Col. James Moore, who lives on them; or by Samuel Blackwell, Esq. who lives near to them; and the terms of payment may be known a sufficient time before the sale, by applying to either of them, or to the subscriber in the city of Philadelphia.

Forty Dollars Reward.

Left my service on Thursday last,

NEGRO LEWIS, about 18 years old, not very black, supposed to be between 5 feet 6 and 5 feet 8 inches high, straight and rather slender made, two of his upper front teeth gone, which leaves a considerable gap in his dress not recollected, except when he went on he had on a faded roundabout jacket and blue mixed kersey pantaloons much worn & had been patched with striped home-made cloth—he may change his cloaths, as his acquaintance in the county and Alexandria and neighborhood is extensive—he is slovenly in his apparel, pert, talkative and assuming among his equals.

ALSO, ON NEXT MORNING,

NEGRO EMANUEL, 30 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, stout made across the shoulders, large feet, very much knockknee'd, which occasions an appearance of a rocking motion in walking, of a lighter shade than Lewis; his cloaths not known, as he has sundry and frequently changes them; he is a good sawyer and wagoner, and at any work of a farm none superior. I did suppose Lewis only absconded for fear of correction, he having been very impertinent to his overseer; but Emanuel, who has a wife in the neighborhood from whom he has removed his cloaths, having also absconded, I suppose it is intended by them to endeavor to get entirely off. If taken in the counties of fairfax, Loudoun, Prince William, or Alexandria. I will give 20 dollars for both, or 10 dollars for either, and if out of those counties or the state the above reward for both or one half for either, if brought home or so secured that I get them, and all reasonable charges for one or both.

Edward Dulin.

Clover Hill, Fairfax county,

June 24th—26.

N. B. All captains or masters of vessels and all others are forewarned harboring or assisting the escape of said negroes, at their peril.

Fire Engine for Sale.

WARRANTED in complete order—made in Philadelphia—the property of the Friendship Fire Company—who have purchased a larger one, and will sell this, a great bargain, for a very inconsiderable sum.
The owners of mills, or a small town, by a trifling subscription may have the means of saving much valuable property from the flames. The Engine may be seen and the terms known by application to either of the subscribers, who are duly authorised to dispose of the same.

Nicholas Hingston,

John Horner,

John Rea.

June 27.

I WILL SELL

The handsome new pilot boat built Schooner Antelope, burthen 104 3/4 tons, now fitting at Mr.
Hunter's ship yard; the principal sails and rigging, as well as most of her other materials are provided, so that with very little further expence she can be sent to sea. On close examination, the Antelope will be found to be of the best materials and workmanship.

I expect to be at Mr. Caton's all the forenoon of Thursday next, and will treat with any gentleman for the vessel—when the terms will be explained.

John Teackle.

June 25—28.

Alexandria Daily Gazette.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29.

We understand the Senate yesterday conferred in the nomination of John Quincy Adams, Esq. as minister to the court of Russia.

The young American Orator, the Infant Pascius, on Tuesday last recited before the President, Professors, and Students of George-Town College, with his usual eclat.
Mr. Mathews, the President, bestowed the most flattering encomiums on him.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, June 27.
[CONCLUDED.]

[Taken for the Alexandria Gazette.]

The non-intercourse act passed, without any essential amendment of its principle as passed from the senate—ayes 72, noes 15, as follows:

Yea—Messrs. L. J. Alston, W. Alston, Yea—Messrs. Bacon, Bibb, Boyd, J. Brown, ner, Gholdson, Goodwyn, Gold, Heister, Helm, Huffy, Jenkins, Johnson, Kennedy, Knickerbacker, Livingston, Love, Lyon,

Pearson, J. Porter, P. B. Porter, Quincy, Rhea, (Tenn.) Richards, Roane, Sammons, Sheffield, Smilie, G. Smith, Smith, Southard, Stanley, Stephenson, Thompson, Tracy, Van Dyke, Van Wort, Weakley, Wheaton, Whitehill, Whitman, Winn, Witherspoon.—72.

Nays—Messrs. Blaisdell, Chamberlain, Dana, Davenport, Ely, Hale, Haven, Holland, Hubbard, Livermore, Macon, Pit-kin, Ross, Stanford, Taylor, 15.
The third principle, for a total admission of public armed vessels, was thus carried by a majority of 57.

The senate returned the bill making appropriations for the contingent expenses of both houses of Congress, with an amendment, striking out the second section, which made an appropriation for the library, in which the house concurred.

The house then took up the report of the committee on the contested election of W.
Wyles.

A motion was made to postpone its further consideration till the 4th Monday in November next, in order to authorize commissions to be issued to magistrates in Plymouth district to hear evidence touching the election of November last—the question was taken about nine o'clock, P.M. and —ayes 45, noes 65.

The question was taken on the first resolution, declaring the election held in Plymouth district in November last was legal and proper, and carried—ayes 53, nays

The question on the second, declaring William Baylies not entitled to a seat in the use, was taken, but it was found there was one vote wanting to make a quorum.
This was about 12 o'clock, (evening). After a good deal of cavelling,

A motion made about one o'clock, morng, to adjourn, succeeded.
[We may take some farther notice of this day's proceedings.]

WEDNESDAY, June 28.

Mr. Jackson moved, Resolved, That at any time during the present session, should there not be a quorum, the attendance of members shall be compelled by a call of the house.

Mr. Bassett explained the rules of the house, which he conceived warranted, fifteen members with the speaker, to enforce call.

Mr. Jackson upon this withdrew his resolution.

The unfinished business of yesterday was taken up—the second resolution, declaring William Baylies not entitled to his seat, under consideration, which, after a few remarks, passed in the affirmative—Ayes 60—Nays

The third resolution next recurred, declaring Charles Turner entitled to a seat in the house, which after debate passed in the affirmative—ayes 62, nays 41, as follow:

A message from the senate announced their agreement to the amendment of the house on the non-intercourse act.

A message from the senate announced the passage of the finance bill relating to the support of the public credit and extinguishing the national debt, with amendment, asked the concurrence of the house therein.

The house took up the bill authorising the president to remit the penalties arising from the introduction of slaves into the U.
S. since 1st Jan. 1808, forcibly put on board (from Cuba.)

Extract from the log book of the brig Joshua Potts, of Wilmington, (N. C.) arrived at Trinidad.

"The brig Joshua Potts, John Austin, fell in with a small privateer schooner under Spanish colors, who robbed her of all her provisions and part of her cargo, stripped the brig of a number of her rigging, yawl, compass and a number of other articles. This happened on the 17th April, 15 miles to the windward of the port of St. Jago, where the brig was bound; and after detaining her from 3 o'clock till 8, ordered her to Jamaica, and threatened to burn the brig, unless she went where they ordered her to go, and watched her till day, when we were to leeward of St.
Jago, and could not get back. On the following Sunday, fell in with the brig Success, of Salem, John Phippen, who was good enough to furnish the brig with one barrel of bread, and we got into Trinidad on the 16th.

NEW ORLEANS, May 24.

Another duel was fought yesterday morning, by Lieut. Chruise, late of the marine corps, and Dr. Heap, surgeon in the navy—distance five yards. Each of them received a wound in the right thigh; but neither are supposed to be dangerous.

LETTER

From a person of note in Spain, to his friend in the Havanna.

"The battle of Medelin has been the most bloody one fought this war—the enemy had 24 cannons, we 10; theirs very badly served ours discharged for the space of two hours and an half, a continual shower of grape.— Our infantry charged with bayonet up to the very walls of the houses of the village in pursuit of the enemy. The imperial guards fled, as well as general Victor at the head of his staff. The marine battalions and the Spanish guards, have covered themselves with glory—they threw away their muskets, and seizing hold of their bayonets by the handle, they fell upon, stabbed, overthrew and pent up, the invincibles. If our cavalry had not fallen back, it would have been the most memorable battle of the campaign.
Nevertheless, the enemy has now seen to his sorrow, what we are. Much blood has been spilt: eleven thousand dead on both sides, covered the banks of the Guadiana: they have lost upwards of seven thousand, and we nearly four thousand men.

"As the right wing was abandoned by the cavalry, all the centre, composed of the infantry, had considerably the advantage, and was advancing in pursuit of the enemy, it was necessary to retreat, to avoid the enemy from outflanking the army. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, the 29th of March (the day of the battle) the enemy's cannonading ceased, and both armies have retired to their respective positions, leaving the field of battle in the middle, neither of the armies remained masters of it.

"Although we have not gained much yet we have lost nothing by it: on the contrary, we have obtained some advantage, namely, that of making head against the enemy, and causing them to fly. The retreat of the cavalry it appears, was owing to a mistake, at least with respect to those regiments who followed that of Maria Louisa, whom they understood had received orders to retreat. Gen. Cuesta retreated with his army to Villanueva to rest his troops; he afterwards proceeded with his staff to Campillo, to re-unite his cavalry, partially dispersed, and he informs having already accomplished this.

"The enemy do not stir, and general Cuesta adds, that he does not consider them in a situation to make a fresh attack; nevertheless he is upon the watch, and has taken every measure to avoid any surprise.

Meanwhile he is strengthening himself, and combining his measures for new operations against the enemy; they certainly have been terrified. Gen. Cuesta continues ill from a fall, and gen. Eguia commands the army, ad interim.

"The rafts and pontoons on which Victor had passed the Tagus have been broken and carried away by the current of the river.— General Cartaojal has been surprised by 12,000 of the enemy on his march to Toledo.
It was not believed they had such considerable force in that quarter. The cavalry was separated from the infantry by the interposition of the above mentioned body of the enemy. They however have extricated themselves without loss, and our army is complete. The whole of our force in La Mancha is composed of 32,000 men. Chaves has been conquered by the Portuguese—they put the whole French garrison, composed of 1500 men, to the sword. The remaining French force which entered Portugal amounting to 14,000, marched towards Braga, from whence they have been repulsed.

"Some English have arrived, and disembarked at Oporto. Last night two deputies were sent from the supreme junta to compliment general Cuesta."

From the Philadelphia Register.

LOSS OF THE FRENCH IN SPAIN AND PORTUGAL.

This statement of the loss sustained by the French in Spain and Portugal is founded on very correct information; indeed it will be seen upon particular examination, that the number, far from being exaggerated, is probably diminished.

FIRST CAMPAIGN.

Deaths by sickness and the sword in Madrid, Burgos, Biscay, Navarre, &c. 11,000
Ditto in Catalonia 8,000 Killed in the first siege of Saragossa, and in various actions in its neighborhood 10,000 Killed in Valencia and La Mancha 8,000 Killed and taken prisoners in Andalusia, including those of the French squadron in Cadiz 30,000 Missing, deserted, and killed by the fury of the inhabitants of various places and by individuals 4,000
Killed in Portugal, by the English, deaths by sickness, and stabbed, 8,000
Killed in several battles and skirmishes, in Old Castile, 6,000

SECOND CAMPAIGN.

In several actions with the army of the centre, including that of Lerin, 3,000
Battle of Tudela, on the 23d of November, 1808, 6,000 During the long siege of Saragosa, and actions in Arragon besides the missing (the greatest part of the latter killed by the dagger) 17,000
Several actions in Catalonia 10,000 Killed and wounded in Biscay and Mountains of St. Ander, by the army of Blake, 10,000 In Burgos, by the army of Estramadura, 1,000
At Sepulveda, Somosierra, and Madrid, 7,000 Killed in Estramadura, action of Velez, and other villages in La Mancha, 4,000
Loss from Madrid to Corunna, including the battles fought by the English in Castile and Gal-licia, 10,000 Deaths in the several armies (and by the dagger) in various parts of Spain, 10,000

163,000

The total loss of French in Spain and Portugal, to the end of March, amounts to 163,000 men. The calculation of the deaths by sickness is certainly short, from the accounts we have of the number of hospitals they have established: in Madrid, alone, they have seven, containing upwards of 5,000 sick.

TRANSLATED FOR THE PHILA- DELPHIA REGISTER.

Extract of a letter from the Havanna, dated 5th of June, 1809:—

"The news from Spain by a king's packet brig just arrived, are very favorable. La Romana has taken Tuy in Galicia, and besides the killed & wounded of the enemy, he has made 2,500 prisoners: we have great hopes of the ultimate success of the patriotic cause in Spain.

"Yesterday was his Britannic majesty's birth day, and the captain general dined on board of a British frigate commanded by admiral Rodney, son of the celebrated admiral of that name. The day was ushered in by the repeated salutes from the fortifications and vessels of war. It was truly a day of rejoicing: the fete concluded by the representation of a Comedy, called, The Defence of Saragossa. Senora Rodriguez, sung the Patriotic National March, with words analogous to the day, which occasioned much applause.

"The chorus was repeated by the whole house—the English captain and officers took off their hats and gave three cheers, and a shower of gold fell on the stage at the feet of Senora Rodriguez, who must have made by it upwards of 2,000 dollars."

RECOMMENDATION.

THE Superintendent of Police recommends to the citizens of Alexandria, during the warm season, a frequent use of LIME in their Privies and other parts of their premises where filth accumulates—and the greatest attention is required to the keeping clean and dry their cellars, so that no stagnant water be left in them.

He particularly requests the proprietors of unoccupied houses and cellars to cause them frequently to be opened and aired—housekeepers are required to cause all the rubbish accumulated in their back yards to be thrown into the streets that the scavengers carts may take it away.

Just Published,

FOR SALE BY R. GRAY,

A CELEBRATED ROMANCE ENTITLED

ABAELLINO,

THE BRAVO OF VENICE.

Translated from the German, by M. G. Lewis, the well known author of the Castle Spectre, Monk, Adelgitha &c. &c. Price, handsomely bound, one dollar—the English edition sold at one dollar seventy five cents.

What black Musician conjures up this fiend?
What, do you tremble, are ye all afraid?
Alas, I blame ye not, for ye are mortal, And mortal eyes cannot endure the devil—Avaunt, thou dreadful Minister of Hell.

RICHARD III.

In justice to this excellent Romance, we need only remark, that the Grand Dramatic piece, which for several seasons past drew such full houses to our theatre, is founded on the same subject, as translated by Dunlap; but the acknowledged superiority of Lewis's writings or translations in the Romance style, being so far superior to any other of our modern authors, leaves encomium unnecessary with the publishers.

NOTE. Five editions of this Romance were sold in a very short time, after publication in London—it is dedicated to the Earl of Moira, by Lewis.

Valuable Property for Sale.

Pursuant to a deed of trust made by ELISHA JANNEY to the subscriber for the benefit of his creditors, will be exposed to public sale, before the tavern door of Zachariah Ward, in the town of Ocoquan, at twelve o'clock, on FRIDAY, the twenty-first of next month—

That valuable MILL-SEAT, the property of the said Janney, situate in the said town of Ocoquan. On this scite was erected, about ten years ago, a spacious three story brick mill house, which ever since has been occupied as a manufacturing mill until about five weeks ago it was destroyed by fire: the stone work of the mill and a considerable part of the brick work still stands and would be found sufficiently substantial to erect new work upon it—considerable part of the iron work would also answer for a new mill, which might with these aids be erected in time to grind the growing crop of wheat. The advantages appertaining to this valuable property which in the driest season never wants water, are so generally known as hardly to need a particular enumeration. Suffice it to state, that it is situated in a healthy and flourishing little town at the falls of Ocoquan river, about 16 miles south of Alexandria, on the great stage road leading from north to south, in the heart of a fine wheat country, and has navigable tide water to the mill door where vessels may come of sufficient burthen to carry 400 to 500 barrels of flour.

ALSO,

At the same time and place will be exposed to sale,

The TANYARD and the Improvement thereon, which are calculated for the carrying on the tanning business to advantage and on a large scale, together with the stock of Leather, &c. on hand.

ALSO,

Will be exposed for sale, at the same time and place,

One undivided Moiety of a Tract of Land, containing about 500 acres, situate on the north side of the Ocoquan river, very valuable from the quantity of fine timber which it contains.

Terms of sale for the real property will be—Ten per cent. on the purchase money payable within 60 days by negotiable notes well endorsed—for the residue a credit will be given of one, two and three years on equal payments with interest from the date, and a deed of trust upon the property to secure the payments will be required.

For further particulars, those who may desire to purchase will be pleased to apply to Mr. Nathaniel Ellicott, at Ocoquan, or to the subscriber at Bush-Hill, near Alexandria.
